

What are the actions of your character?

Why did the character do what he/she did?

What was right and wrong about the action?

What is the benefit and cost from the action?

How are you like this character?

What is a theme you found to be most important?

How will learning this lesson change the way you think/act in the future?

Which main character will you focus on?